Record Honored By Depot

THE DAILY Record yesterday was presented a plaque by Tobyhanna Signal Depot Commanding Officer Col. Clifford Poutre citing this newspaper for "outstanding co-operation" with the depot and its personnel.

The award was presented to the newspaper during a luncheon meeting of the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce held in conjunction with Tobyhanna Days at the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

Receiving the award for the newspaper was General Manager Horace G. Heller.

Both Heller and Jack Hill, editor, were presented inscribed paper weights citing them for their work in achieving this co-operation. Heller accepted his award in behalf of The Daily Record.

Col. Poutre, in making the plaque presentation, said the honorary award was being made for the newspaper's effort in "telling the truth and trying to help fit us into the community."

Earlier the commanding officer had remarked that depot personnel had been able to find themselves "as much as part of the community as" its residents. This, he pointed out, was "due in a great sense to the Record."

Preceding the award was an address by Clifford Cramer, vice president of the Chamber of Commerce in which he outlined "What the Tobyhanna Signal Depot Means to the Stroudsburgs and Monroe County."

For everyone," he continued, "I wish to thank Col. Poutre and his entire organization for their tremendous contributions to the welfare of our community."

Col. Poutre then addressed the gathering and following the presentation of awards to the newspaper and Heller and Hill, the following was read.

A telegram from Governor

George M. Leader which stated: "Fifth anniversary of the establishment of Tobyhanna Depot is an important date to your area and to enterprise. Pennsylvania Community, I sincerely regret I cannot be with you today to add my personal congratulations to Army Award being received by Horace Heller and Stroudsburg Daily Record for the recognition they are receiving for their outstanding support of the Tobyhanna Depot. Best wishes to all of you."

Second was a letter from Representative Francis E. Walter: "When the establishment of Federal activity at Tobyhanna became a reality, years of almost frustrating efforts came to a successful conclusion.

"It is, therefore, with more than passing interest that I extend to you and the Stroudsburg Daily Record my expressions of sincere appreciation for the combined endeavors on behalf of the Tobyhanna Signal Depot.

"With kind personal regards, I am . . . Francis E. Walter."

Sunday School Lesson

Moses Offers Explanation Of Instructions

By Newman Campbell
THIS LESSON is the story of the building of the sanctuary by the children of Israel. If the teacher, especially of the younger classes, can obtain a model of the tabernacle, or a picture of it, it would be helpful. Consult your book shops. A visit to a Jewish place of worship—with a member of its congregation to explain the service—would be helpful to the older classes.

Moses received the instructions for the building of the sanctuary on Mt. Sinai, and "gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them, These are the words which the Lord hath commanded, that ye should do them."

The word "sanctuary" "comes from a Latin word meaning sacred or set apart, so though we are not living in Old Testament times, we do worship in places that are made to remind us of the true character of worship and of the holiness of God."—Dr. Wilbur M. Smith.

The work was to be done on days of the week only, so that the Sabbath could be kept. "Take ye from among you an offering unto the Lord: who soever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the Lord; gold, and silver, and brass. And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair. And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood"—the Jewish name for a valuable and durable wood, believed to be some kind of acacia, according to the encyclopedia.

Many other offerings for the building and furnishing of the sanctuary were asked for, and the people responded enthusiastically. Both men and women brought their gifts as the Lord commanded. The women brought their jewelry and spun with their own hands fine linens in blue, purple and scarlet.

Not only did the congregation bring gifts so that the sanctuary might be built, but every man who had a knowledge of the work to be done offered his services.

The description of the building and the furnishing of the sanctuary we have not space to relate here, but it is most interesting and should be read, at least in part, to the classes.

"And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, On the first day of the first month shall thou set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation. And thou shall put therein the ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the vail."—Exodus 40:1-3.

Then the Lord gave implicit instructions as to the order of the rituals. Moses and Aaron and his sons went in and Aaron was anointed and sanctified to minister unto God. In the priest's office.

All was done as the Lord commanded, and when all was finished, "a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle."—Exodus 40:34.

The editor of Peleubet's Notes, Dr. Wilbur M. Smith, gives us a description of the tabernacle, which the teachers should read and describe to the class, giving a very simple description to the younger classes. This is important if no picture or model is available.

The lesson for all of us, in whatever church we worship, is to copy the enthusiasm and generosity of the children of Israel in the building of the tabernacle if our congregation is considering building a new church.

The lesson for all of us, in

Clark Leaves Hospital

WASHINGTON (Pa.)—Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) and Mrs. Clark were released yesterday from Washington Medical Center after treatment of injuries suffered in an auto collision Tuesday night.

A further part of the night service will be special recognition of the great grandmothers present in the service.

The service is planned as a special tribute to the mothers of the congregation and community. Two "Mothers of the Year" will be selected, one a mother over 50 and another, one of the younger mothers of the congregation.

A committee composed of Mrs. Fred Davis, Mrs. Ed. Smith, Mrs. Dale Learn, Mrs. Merritt Eisenhart, Mrs. Ernest Staples, Mrs. Harry Warrick, Mrs. Maude Stem and Mrs. Kenneth Stine has met and selected these individuals whose names will be announced in the service.

A special reception group of the young mothers of the congregation is comprised of Mrs. Howard F. Hineline, Mrs. John Detrick, Mrs. Gerald Smith, Mrs. Arthur Woolever, Mrs. Arthur E. Weiss, Mrs. Kenneth Alsapach, Mrs. William F. Rhule, Mrs. Harold J. Litts and Mrs. Roger Repsher, Jr.

A high point in this service is the presentation of Robert Sands, lyric tenor as soloist. He will be accompanied by Wally Hornbrook.

Other services scheduled for tomorrow are: Holy Eucharist at 8 a. m. and Family Service and Church School at 11.

Young Adult Heroes

Some of the most unpleasant reading in newspapers these days concerns the rising crime rate among teen-agers. According to figures released by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, arrests of teen-agers involving all types of crime rose again in 1957.

Auto theft was up 68 percent; burglary up 55 percent. Other figures are equally disheartening.

These facts can't be denied. But there was one recent news story concerning the younger generation which makes for inspiring reading—one that reminds us that there is a lot more to say about teen-agers than mere police figures.

This news event was the annual awarding of medals for heroism by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission.

Symbolic Pretzel

Mr. Arthur T. McGonigle of Sinking Spring, Pennsylvania, the candidate of the "regular" Republican organization in that state, has for his campaign symbol a pretzel.

We think Mr. McGonigle's got something there, for a number of reasons.

For one, the gentleman makes pretzels when he isn't making votes. For another, the pretzel is certainly a symbol of the Pennsylvania Germans—whom everybody insists on calling Dutch—are familiar with as a companion of the seidel. For a third, Mr. McGonigle proves his shrewdness; he was afraid his opponent for the G.O.P. nomination, Mr. Harold Stassen, might point out that just because a man made good pretzels didn't mean he'd make a good governor. So Mr. McGonigle beat his opponents to the punch and made the Donkey or the Elephant.

Well, we're certainly not taking sides; our interest in this campaign is the new political symbol. It deserves greater prominence than just as an emblem in a primary election in Pennsylvania. It is, we think, an apter symbol for both political parties than either the Donkey or the Elephant.

Well, even more interesting than the fact that a man named McGonigle makes pretzels is what Mr. McGonigle has done with the pretzel. He took $20,000 Headache

By Mason Denison

Harrisburg — Filling a $20,000 a year job wouldn't seem to be too difficult a chore—on the surface at least . . . But Governor Leader with little more than six months to go in his term has found as other governors before him that it isn't the snap it might appear at first glance.

The untimely death April 22 of Secretary of Revenue Vincent G. Panati created the Cabinet post vacancy which now has the governor on the search . . . With only a six-month stint in office in the offing, few other than run-of-the-mill political hacks worth a $2400 clerkship are interested . . . Few top flight potentials are willing to take the battering-ram bopping they're bound to receive during the critical and oftentimes damaging campaign months ahead—with only a six month tenure in the offing.

Significant fact: the possibility of a carry-over is remote even should another Democratic administration be moved into office in November by Pennsylvania's voters . . . New governors like to pick their own members of their "official family" and carry-overs usually are few and far between.

A Look At 1959 — Regardless of who emerges as the gubernatorial victor this fall, the inauguration of Pennsylvania's new governor next January will see the inauguration of many changes . . . For example, Democrats counting on a "status quo" should Pittsburgh Mayor David L. Lawrence win the final is in for some surprises.

Old Pol Lawrence does not fall into the "egghead" class and has been too long in harness to embrace from head to toe the "idealistic" policies that have marked the Leader Administration.

Many of the Leader programs will be carried forward it is true—but the eggheads will give way to more practical politics and a definite buildup of organizational "staff command" on Capitol Hill, duplicating in great degree the organizational snap of past Republican regimes.

Those "Special" Tags — Of some 400,000 special automobile license tags issued this year by the State Department of Revenue in reply to requests ranging from initials to baby sitter's number — there are a half-dozen categories that are really serious "specials".

For example — when you see license tags with series ranging from 1000Z to 9999Z, it means that car represents municipal police, fire, etc., and are issued without charge . . . On the other hand there are three "extra charge" license specials . . . One covers special tags for antique automobile, another covers ham radio operators with their call letters inscribed thereon, and the third covers professional press photographers with a PP preceding the number on the license plate . . . The PP press photo plates are used in front, with conventional plates on the rear — the only two license plate instance.

Other specials — 40 plates are set aside for Pennsylvania's Members of Congress and carry the letters MC followed by congressional district number . . . 50 are set aside for Pennsylvania's State Senators with the letters PA followed by senatorial district number . . . 225 plates are scheduled for members of the State House of Representatives with the letters HR followed by legislative district number.

Thus, the terms of all sub-contracts are favorable to the Primary Contractor which also has the public relations value of being able to advertise that it is pro bono publico by dividing its contracts with so many others.

The Primary Contractor is generally a large firm with enormous credit, usually through interlocking directorates, which gets a contract to do an important job for the government, particularly in relation to the national defense. The Primary Contractor sublets parts of its contract to a number of small firms, some of which can take no other work and therefore are wholly dependent upon the Primary Contractor.

Other specials — 40 plates are set aside for Pennsylvania's Members of Congress and carry the letters MC followed by congressional district number . . . 50 are set aside for Pennsylvania's State Senators with the letters PA followed by senatorial district number . . . 225 plates are scheduled for members of the State House of Representatives with the letters HR followed by legislative district number.

Univac's Vacuum — That a $300,000 electronic computing monster now being installed on Capitol Hill for State Department — Univac — may be hot on figures but an interesting fact is that Univac uses the Remington Rand system while many of the computing machines already installed use another system — IBM . . . all of which requires time-consuming and costly "converting" of data for Univac's consumption.

Dear Abby: Please ask that woman who found the box of love letters in her husband's care how much she will take for them. I am sure this concerns me.

Willing To Buy.

Dear Abby: If that wife of her husband will contact me, I can straighten out a few things for her. I also have a lot of letters from her husband begging me to let him divorce her so he can marry me, but I wouldn't let him break up his home or mine. So if she wants to break up my home after I tried to protect HER, let her go ahead and show my husband those letters.

No Home Wrecker.

Dear Abby: Please inform that lady who found my letters to her husband that it turns them over to my husband it won't do her any good because I already have confessed everything and he has forgiven me. Thanks loads.

Study For Flood Control In Tannersville

Inspection Held Along Pocono Creek

By Leonard Randolph

A FULL-SCALE study of flood control for the Tannersville section was officially begun yesterday morning.

An on-the-spot inspection of conditions along Pocono Creek running through the region was carried out by Monroe County, township and state officials.

It was an inspection marked by these major developments:

Victor Caesar, bridge engineer for District Five, Department of Highways, promised that he would pass along to T. K. Rothmund, district engineer, his recommendations concerning a double-arch bridge on Leg. Rte. 45081. Pocono Township residents feel the bridge is insufficient to accommodate high stream levels.

John Matso, district flood control engineer, told officials that his department will not attempt to do anything so long as the inadequate bridge exists.

Matso could promise no action on clearance of the stream of what remains of a 132-year-old weir.

County Commission chairman John B. Lescine emphasized that the weir is partially blocking the stream. He said its removal constitutes an emergency.

"We have to get rid of it before we have any more high water," he said.

County Engineer Edward C. Hess said that formal application to allow installation of pipe to feed a water supply into the area's fire control pond has been made.

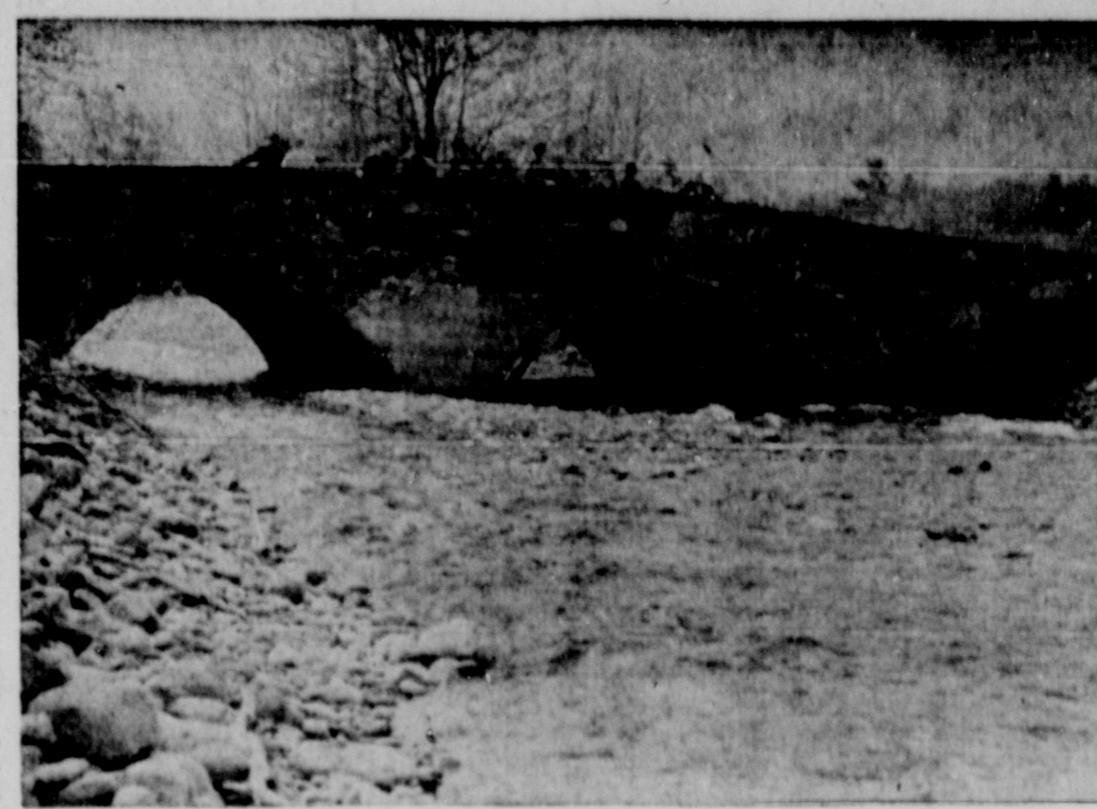

Hess said the application was forwarded in April to the Water and Sewer Resources Board in Harrisburg. He said he has received word that the application arrived and is on file, but nothing further.

The weir (a kind of dam) lies to the rear of the site of the Pocono Diner. More than a quarter of it has been destroyed by flood waters.

The remaining portion dams up and diverts high waters to the opposite side of the stream, eroding the bank and cutting into a field owned by Samuel Kellerhals.

Originally — after the 1955 flood — State Department of Forests and Waters had encouraged local residents to allow removal of the dam. But this was opposed by some parts of the community.

The weir had once been used to divert a flow of water to GUESS IT'S A HAZARD—This double-arch bridge on Pocono Creek and Leg. Rte. 45081 at Tannersville is blamed by residents for part of trouble during high water periods. State, county and township officials viewed it yesterday; said something "if possible" should be done. Highway engineer said major drawback to any plan for new bridge would be low traffic count over it. Another picture on page seven.

a pond in front of the township school. The pond is used for firefighting purposes.

During yesterday's conference township supervisors announced that the community is now totally lacking in a sufficient fire-fighting supply because the weir is broken. It is for this reason that approval of pipe installation to direct flow of water into the pond is necessary.

Totally dependent on the pond for its fire protection facilities is the township school. School board members have already given their consent to demolition of the remainder of the weir and installation of the pipe.

Matso quoted from the rule books to show that the Department of Forests and Waters has no authorization for "improving" facilities which were installed by others, even though they may now constitute a fire hazard.

County Solicitor L. A. Achtermann at this point interrupted to emphasize that "no one is asking you to improve anything. We want this undertaken as a stream clearance project to get rid of a definite flood hazard. That's what we're asking."

Lescine then pointed out, for the second time during the conference, that conditions on the stream (the remains of the weir or the low-clearance bridge or a combination of both) had caused hazardous flood conditions repeatedly.

"Last December," Lescine said, "the water ran at least won't be corrected simply by building a new bridge." Local officials agreed that some cooperative work between the Departments of Forests and Waters and Highways would be needed if the job is to be done properly.

In discussing the weir, Matso suggested that the county and township formally request permission from the "Division of Dams and Encroachments" to remove the weir from the stream.

Previously Matso had informed local authorities that the weir was illegal in the first place. No record of a request for it is on file with the Water and Power Resources Board, he said.

Commissioner Willard Quick said there was a simple explanation for that — the weir was installed long before the Board came into existence.

Near the close of the inspection, Lescine commented on the "amount of red tape you have to go through to get anything done."

Commissioners and township supervisors said, immediately, however, that they will ask the Department's proper division for permission or assistance in getting rid of the debris created in the stream by the old weir.

Matso emphasized that yesterday's inspection was "only the beginning" of a full-length study of the Pocono Creek in Tannersville, with an eye to eventual flood protection.

Both men pointed out that the State is now designing bridges to accommodate stream flows equivalent to those experienced in the 1955 flood condition. Bridges engineered for the Pocono Mountains are being designed to take care of 100 per cent of flow, he said.

Matso noted, carefully, that

Miniature Rocket Leads Stroudsburg Girl To Unexpected Present For Mother's Day

A REALISTIC miniature rocket—launched yesterday afternoon by Signal Depot personnel during a Tobyhanna Days design—led to a Mother's Day gift for a Stroudsburg 10-year-old's mother.

The rocket sped from a launching platform in Main St. after a countdown at 2 p.m. Spectators watched it disappear and children looked for the parachute that would identify its return.

It was soon discovered that the rocket had strayed. It was given up as lost.

Nearly two hours later, the father of Edna Mae Lee of 14 N. Fourth St., suggested she look at some of the birds that had descended in the back yard of their home.

Lost Rocket

Edna did and found two of the birds perched on the lost rocket. Knowing that a prize was available to the person returning the rockets, she presented it to officials at the show.

Told she had a choice of $5 in cash or a gift certificate at a ladies apparel shop, she chose the latter, much to the surprise of the rocket's personnel.

She was asked why she made the choice she had. "I want to buy something for my mother for Mother's Day," she replied.

John Fribole Services Held

NEWFOUNDLAND—Funeral services for John Fribole, Greenbaum, who died Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schafer with whom he made his home, were held Friday afternoon at the Frey Funeral Home, South Sterling. Rev. Dr. Frederick G. Fulmer, pastor of the Moravian Church, officiated. Interment was in Hopdale Cemetery, Newfoundland.

Pallbearers were Arthur Weiland, Harvey Fribole, Norman and Oscar Burrus, Moss Shiffler and Joseph Morrow.

Henry H. Kierks, vice president of the Monroe County Manufacturing Assn., expressed appreciation for the bureau's aid to management in securing job applicants and for its testing program.

John M. Clark, state director of the Pennsylvania State Employment Service, promised continuance of expansion of service to community. One of the most recent expansion notes is the opening of a new office in Mount Pocono.

The invocation was given by Rev. C. Clyde Levergood and the benediction was delivered by Rev. John A. Eseff.

The public inspected the new office from 4:30 to 8 p.m.

Strunk also pointed out that the employment bureau has been a big help in bringing new industry to the locality.

OVER 300 people attended Thursday night's "open house" at the new offices of the Bureau of Employment Security, at 408 Main St., Stroudsburg. The announcement was made yesterday by John Dougherty, local office manager.

Chairman of the program was Dr. Frank P. Maguire, district manager.

Stroudsburg Burgess Edward Doran welcomed the office back into Stroudsburg after a lapse of 15 years. It has been on S. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg.

J. Horace Strunk, secretary of the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce, expressed appreciation to the bureau for its six-point program and advice. The program consists of placement, counseling, labor market information, service to veterans, industrial service and community participation.

Strunk also pointed out that the employment bureau has been a big help in bringing new industry to the locality.

Stuart F. Pipher, president of the Central Labor Union, ex-

Just Between Us —

A cloud of rosy smoke enveloped the corner of Sixth and Main Sts., a loudspeaker began the count-down, and whoosh — a miniature rocket took off over the church steeple. "There I go again," I said to myself.

Well, anyway, that's the way I feel for the last 48 hours — jet propelled. It doesn't seem possibly so much could be packed into such a short space of time.

The climax, for us at least, came when Col. Poutre of the Signal Depot presented that handsome scroll to The Daily Record and to Horace Heller in particular at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon. We'd been keeping it a deep dark secret since Mr. Heller is the kind of a man you have to sneak up on to pay an honor to.

But I can attest to Col. Poutre's remarks that the Depot and its people are part and parcel of this community. I met a couple of very charming ones at the Stroud Community Club banquet on — mercy was only that Thursday night.

In fact, there's a whole new generation of clubwomen coming on in the Stroud Club that I was delighted to meet — and in the new (to me) surroundings of Merry Hill Lodge I felt I was really stepping into a different world.

There's really no need for a trip to the moon — though that's where all the children who climbed into the cockpit of the fighter plane were imagining they were going — when there are so many worlds within worlds I haven't discovered right around home.

Including Main St. in a carnival mood with music, rockets, and the Tobbyanna displays — and its traffic tied up at the bridge again.

I don't know where the Depot's rocket landed, but I have a feeling I'm going to come down from the stratosphere with an awful thump this weekend. And nobody gets a five dollar prize for finding me, either.

Bartonville — On Saturday afternoon, April 26, the Notre Dame Church, Catawissa Road, Bethlehem, was the scene of the wedding of Jeanne Petrini, of Bethlehem, to Richard Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Evans, of Bethlehem.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The newlyweds honeymooned in Tennessee.

Local folks attending the wedding included Mrs. Maude Bush, maternal grandmother of the groom; Mrs. Elizabeth Evans, paternal grandmother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Haverland Heller, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walters and daughter Kathryn, Mrs. Roy Evans and Mrs. Jerry Evans.

Free Election To Be Held By Worthington Mower Personnel

IAM Vote To Be Held On May 29

A NATIONAL Labor Relations Board conference with local company and union officials yesterday paved the way for a free election among production and maintenance personnel at Worthington Mower Co., Stroudsburg.

The election will be held on May 29 between 3 and 3:45 p.m. in the brick storage building on First St., adjacent to the plant.

In that election Worthington employees will vote either for or against membership in the International Association of Machinists, AFL-CIO.

It will mark the first time in the history of the local plant division that a union shop has been put into effect, if the IAM wins the election.

Yesterday's conference was held at the company offices. It was conducted by Examiner Chester Montgomery from the Philadelphia Regional Office.

The conference was conducted in response to a petition filed by District 128, IAM to the NLRB on May 2. The request was supported by a majority of the employees in the production and maintenance division of the company.

Representing the company at the conference were H. G. Sanborn Jr., William Reaser, Delbert France and company attorney George T. Robinson.

Union Representatives

Union representatives were Claude Fairfield and William Jones, International officers; Emerson Stanton, district business agent and Stuart Pipher, president of the Central Labor Union of Monroe and Pike Counties.

Eligibility in the May 29 voting will be confined to employees who were members of the division staff payroll April 27. A pre-election conference for the instruction of observers will be held a half-hour before voting starts on May 29.

A meeting of Worthington Mower employees is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Thursday, May 15 at the CLU Social Club at 265 S. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg.

Pipher, as president of the two-county Central Labor Union, said last night that all production and maintenance employees are invited to attend.

The CLU president said he has been assured that Fairfield, as IAM regional officer covering NLRB for the union, will be present at the May 15 meeting along with other representatives of the union.

Worthington Mower has 137 production and maintenance employees. In the May 29 election a simple majority of that total will be needed to decide the issue.

Public Invited To Breakfast

B. K. WILLIAMS, county Republican chairman, said last night that the public is invited to attend next Tuesday morning's breakfast at the Penn-Stroud Hotel at which four candidates for statewide nominations will be present.

The breakfast will start at 8:30 a.m. and be followed by brief talks by the candidates—Arthur McGonigle, for governor; Hugh Scott, for U. S. Senator; John Walker, for Lieutenant governor, and Andrew Gleason, for secretary of internal affairs.

Tickets are on sale at the hotel desk.

Car Wash To Be Held Today

MEMBERS of Hi-Y will conduct their third annual car wash at the parking lot on the west side of the Stroudsburg YMCA between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., today.

David J. Griffith, 86, Succumbs

STROUDSBURG'S first paid mail carrier — David J. Griffith died yesterday. He was 86 years old.

Mr. Griffith was an active churchgoer and lodge member. He is remembered by local friends as a man who "loved being with people and working with them."

He led an active life. One of the few "outside interests" he had, besides the service and fraternal organizations for which he worked, was pinocchio.

When he went to work in 1907 for the Stroudsburg Post Office he became this borough's first paid mail carrier. He was assigned to Route Number One in Stroudsburg. He stayed on as a carrier for 29 years, retiring from his job 22 years ago.

After retirement he and his wife spent some of their time in traveling throughout the country. He also devoted much of his time to the Presbyterian Church where he was an elder and taught Sunday School class a number of years.

He was affiliated with the Masons most of his life. He had served as past master and secretary of Barger Lodge 325; past high priest of Monroe Royal Arch Chapter 281; Stroud Council 55; eminent commander of Samuel S. Yohe Commandery 81, Knights Templar.

He was a life member of Irem Temple. He was one of less than 9,000 men in North America to be awarded the Knight of the York Cross of Honour of the United States and to be made a member of Pen Priory, number six on the rolls of the Convent General of the order. Mr. Griffith was vice president of East Stroudsburg Building and Loan Assn. He was an active member of Chemical Fire Co., the Four-County Firemen Co., and the Pennsylvania State Fire Assn.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Dunkelberger and Westbrook Funeral Home. Rev. John A. Bolter will officiate. Interment will be made in Laurelwood Cemetery. Friends may call Saturday after 7 p.m. at the funeral home.

Masonic services will be held at 8 p.m. today at the funeral home.

All Stroudsburg firemen are asked to meet at the fire hall at 7 p.m. today, in uniform, to attend the special firemen's service at 7:30 in the funeral home.

Mr. Griffith was a resident of 523 Sarah St. His wife died two years ago. He was the son of the late John D. and Anna Griffith.

He is survived by a sister, Miss Hannah Griffith of Ran-

Mrs. Reilly, 83, Expires At Home

MRS. CATHERINE A. Reilly, 83, widow of Joseph Reilly, 128 Ridgeway St., East Stroudsburg, died yesterday at 12:30 p.m. at her home.

She was the daughter of the late Charles and Ann Rock McEnroe. Mrs. Reilly had been in failing health the past two months.

She had lived in East Stroudsburg the past four years. Prior to that she resided in Irvington, N. J.

Church Member

Mrs. Reilly was a member of St. Leo's Catholic Church, Irvington, and of the Altar and Rosary Society of St. Matthew's Church in East Stroudsburg.

Surviving are four sons, Edward F. of Rutherford, N. J.; Joseph of East Stroudsburg; Charles V. of East Orange, N. J., and James R. of Irvington.

Requiem Mass will be held Monday at 9:30 a.m. at St. Leo's Catholic Church, Irvington, N. J. with interment in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, East Orange, N. J.

Friends may call tomorrow afternoon and night at 700 Nye Ave., Irvington.

Lanterman Funeral Home, East Stroudsburg, is in charge of arrangements.

H. W. Johns, 63, Dies In Hospital

HARRY W. JOHNS, 63, of Stroudsburg Rd. 3, died Thursday night in Robert Packer Memorial Hospital, Sayre. He had been seriously ill six months.

He was born in Freeland, son of the late Evan and Mary Knoss Johns. He had spent most of his life in Stroudsburg.

Mr. Johns was owner and operator of Dot and Jane Restaurant, Route 611, for the last 24 years. He was a member of Stroudsburg Methodist Church; the Eagles and the CLU Social Club.

Surviving are his wife, Sadie; two daughters, Mrs. Robert Lentz, Hawthorne, N. J., and Mrs. Richard Couch, Paterson, N. J.; four grandchildren, one brother and six sisters, none of whom live in this area.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at the William R. Thomas Funeral Home. Rev. Roger C. Stimson will officiate, assisted by Rev. Howard Slider.

Interment will be made in Stroudsburg Cemetery. Friends may call Sunday after 7 p.m. at the funeral home.

On Monday there will be a Sunday School Board meeting at 8 p.m. in the church.

Revival Series Begins Tomorrow

Mt. Pocono Girl Wins State Honors

NANCY Megargel, a junior at Stroud Union High School, yesterday was announced as a first prize winner in the poster contest conducted by the Medical Society of Pennsylvania.

The resident of Fairview Ave., Mount Pocono, previously had won in the Monroe County Medical Society Contest.

During Thursday night's judging Miss Megargel was awarded first prize in the state-wide contest for posters in the 10-12 grade group. This group was for students with art instruction of more than three periods a week.

Miss Megargel's poster carried out the "post of gold" theme. It pointed out that "health is wealth." The poster featured a bowl in the middle filled with god pieces of "good health."

Parents

Miss Megargel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Megargel and is taking the general course in high school.

She will be invited to attend the state dinner during the annual session of the Medical Society of Pennsylvania at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, Philadelphia, in October to receive her prize and display the winning poster.

First prize is worth $100.

James Heston, a student at James M. Coughlin High School, Wilkes-Barre, was awarded second prize in the same grade group.

MOTOR BOAT RACING may become a reality in the area if the work of two far-sighted men is realized. A recent informal gathering gave out the report that the outboards may match speed in a gigantic one or two-day event on the Delaware River in the very near future.

The efficient pair behind the move to bring motorboat races to the vicinity are Bernie Clemens, East Stroudsburg service station owner, and Bill Tarr, East Stroudsburg businessman.

Clemens, a sports-minded individual from away back, got the site all okayed for the races. The ideal setup is along Kittatinny Beach (the stretch of water at the outskirts of Delaware Water Gap).

Also Clemens has lined up nation-wide motorboat racing organization which will put on the professional-like show.

There are only a few curves to be straightened out before Clemens, Tarr and associates are ready for the "big performance."

The idea, if formed, will be a definite shot in the arm to the area and especially Delaware Water Gap. Events such as these have been beneficial to many other localities.

See you at the races??

Howard DeNike has himself quite a track team at East Stroudsburg State Teachers this year.

The Warriors, despite a horde of under-class material, have won three out of four dual meets against top state teachers competition and broke a school record in bowing gloriously in the Penn Relays at Philadelphia.

The likes of veterans Howie Staeger, Ed Adams, and Karl Weigner blended with young talent Murdoch and Jay Simms has formed a nucleus that makes the Warriors rough for any opposition.

Also newcomer Eric Neal, a freshman, and strong boy Andy Gall, plus Kiersted, Sellers, Greenwood and McComsey have given DeNike and his side, Jim Reed, the backbone to a well-balanced group of individuals.

ESSTC is not exactly making track history but it is making other school foes sit up and take notice. Their convincing victory Thursday at Millersville assures us this.

Stroudsburg High's athletic committee is interviewing candidates right and left the past two weeks for the open football and basketball positions.

The group, composed of two school board members, superintendent of schools, principal and athletic director have screened more than a few the past 10 days.

An unusual high amount of aspirants are seeking the head coaching vacancies at the West Main St. institution.

Jim Dribe and Dick Campetta, two recent service returnees who played a lot of good football at Stroudsburg High before joining Uncle Sam's forces, will enter college in the fall.

Dribe plans to sign up at East Stroudsburg Teachers. However, the 6-foot, 215-pound lineman is undecided about continuing his grid chores. Jim played a lot of good ball in the service and suffered injuries that may halt his football career.

Campetta, a husky 230-pounder, will re-enter Kutztown where he starred on the grid before entering the service. Campy, already a pro ball prospect due to his scintillating record on armed forces elevens, will be a junior at the Reading suburban school.

Both Dribe and Campy played under Jerry Stulgaitis when the now Stroudsburg High baseball coach was head boss of the Mountaineers grid team.

Harry Obitz, the head professional at Shawnee Country Club, comes up with this one. It stems from Otto Graham's 77 in the qualifying round of the 35th Dogwood Invitational at Shawnee.

Quipped Obitz, "Graham (he's the quarterback who guided the Cleveland Browns to the championship of the American and National football leagues for years) just can't keep away from football, even when he is on the golf course. The guy shoots a 77 just to pin-point Red Grange's old number when the Galloping Ghost was wearing numeral '77' for Illinois University and the Chicago Bears.

Kingmaker Out To Make It Two Straight In Grey Lag

By John Chandler

NEW YORK (B)—Kingmaker will attempt to make it two straight victories in the $50,000-added Grey Lag Handicap Saturday at Jamaica, but he's got the toughest opposition seen in the East this season.

Fifteen handicap stars were entered for the mile and one eighth event which features the close of Jamaica's 38-day spring meeting. On Monday the horses move to Belmont Park, where the 83rd running of the famed Withers Mile for 3-year-olds is the main attraction.

Kingmaker, owned by the Happy Hill Farm of Cortwright Wetherill, won the 1967 Grey Lag, breaking the track record. Two weeks ago he won the Excelsior Handicap at Jamaica, beating many of the horses he meets Saturday.

Probable Choice
The probable choice, however, is the Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs entry of Promised Land, the 125 pound topweight, and Paper Tiger, 115. Kingmaker packs 122 pounds.

Another tough customer in the lineup is the Brookmeade Stable's Oligarch, with 117. Oligarch won the Widener Handicap at Hialeah last winter, and took the Laurel Handicap April 26.

Other recent winners in the race include Harry F. Guggenheim's One-eye King (Lincoln Special), 115; Mrs. Wallace Gilroy's Oh Johnny (Gotham), 119; Edward Seinfeld's Admiral Ve (Palmonok), 118. Promised Land won two $100,000 races, the San Juan Capistrano and the Campbell Memorial, this year.

Other Hopefuls
C. T. Cheney's Third Brother, second in the Excelsior, has 120, and the King Ranch's Beam Rider, third in that race, has 108. Beam Rider ran second last year when Kingmaker won the Grey Lag in 1:48 1/5, shaving three-fifths off the track mark set a week or so earlier by Bold Rider in the Wood Memorial.

Alfred Vanderbilt's Find, the 1955 Grey Lag winner, is back for another try under 119 pounds.

Completing the field are Mrs. John R. H. Thouron's Ben Lomond, 115; Robert O. J. Streeter's Pylades, 106; the Maine Chance Farm's Busher Fantasy, 107; Jan Burke's Field of Honor, 107; and Jack W. Schifer's General Arthur, 110.

Gross Blanks Zephyrs, 4-0

Stroudsburg Gains Third LV Victory

HOKENDAUQUA—Six-foot, four-inch righthander Tom Gross hurled Stroudsburg High to a 4-0 triumph over Whitehall High here yesterday in a Lehigh Valley Scholastic League game.

Gross, a junior, set down the Zephyrs with only two hits in pitching the Mountaineers to their third victory in five league starts.

Joe Kunkle matched the elongated Mountaineer in the hit department, allowing Jerry Stulgaitis nine only two safeties. However, Dave O'Connor, who got both of Stroudsburg's bingles and the wildness of the Zephyr mountaineers led to his own downfall.

A three-run outbreak in the fourth inning was all the cushion Gross needed as he kept the Zephyrs away from the run door throughout. The Mountaineer pitcher struck out six and walked only two in chalking up his second straight good hill performance.

Stroudsburg actually got what proved to be the winning run in the second inning. This edge held up until the tie came across in the fourth.

PHILADELPHIA

— East Stroudsburg State Teachers College archery team lost its first match of the season yesterday when it bowed to the University of Pennsylvania girls, 1139-1080, on the visitors' home field.

The Warriorettes salvaged individual honors, however, as Elizabeth Snyder rolled up the high score of the match with 62 hits out of a possible 72 for a 346 point total.

Letter
To Sports
Editor

Mr. Clark,
The Sports Editor,
The Daily Record,
Stroudsburg, Penna.
My dear Sir:

On April 30 issue of The Daily Record I note a letter "To the Editor" signed "A Fan." He speaks why the write-up in The Morning Call. It was the Call-Chronicle.

Why the Lake Harmony Club in the Pocono Mountain League?

It is simply this; it is not indebted to the league, is a semi-pro team playing under an amateur status the same as the other seven teams.

If I understand correctly the Call-Chronicle has the right to publish any sports issues as it so desires. Any paper interested in sports will write up articles which will be looked at in its circulation.

This article was under "Strictly Sports."

The Fan wonders why only eight (8) teams instead of ten (10) in 1958. The league could have had ten (10) this year. The league representatives (one from each club) voted for eight (8) teams. I believe the vote was unanimous in favor of eight (8).

Only to financial difficulties more of the clubs of 1957 would be playing in the P. M. League this year. Sorry to make the statement but the two teams not from 1957 are indebted to the league.

We have on record a very nice letter from the Bushkill officials wanting to be part of the league in 1958 and are working to pay their debts before that time. To clarify matters the ruling of the league is all obligations must be met before you can become a part of it.

The club and league officials at the April 21 meeting gave Bushkill a big round of applause for their determination.

It appears as though Lake Harmony took the pennant in 1956. I thought it was Stroudsburg. Why didn't the Strouds make a big showing in 1956 at the banquet?

If Lake Harmony was in 5th, 6th, 7th or 1st place they were fairly well represented and tried to make it a success not a failure.

Mr. Fan when did we of the P. M. L. have our first banquet? Do you know?

Why do players wish to play with Lake Harmony?

Why do players from Stroudsburg, Saylorsburg, etc., etc., wish to play for Tannersville? Why does Mr. Bachman (a gentleman) manage the Tannersville Club?

To the last question I will give my answer. The club as a whole are sportsminded and very mannerly.

Why was the Territorial Rights removed from the By-Laws? No; not to benefit one team most.

Who makes and amends the By-laws?

You, Mr. Fan think as many more do: No, not the league of officials. Your club representative and the other club representative have that to do. The league officials do not vote.

Speaking of distances to and from games. Do fans and players remember Dingmans Ferry? Oh yes, that is in Monroe Co. Right in the circle. That was a club near all the others years ago. What about players that were on the rosters of clubs in the P. M. L. a few years ago? Players from Carbon played on Monroe Co. clubs. Some clubs had players from Pike, Luzerne, Lackawanna, Northampton, yes from New York and New Jersey.

Mr. Fan are you trying to be little the players of Tannersville and the other clubs? (I mean brain beat out). Where do you get all that inferior complex?

The game between Lake Harmony and Tannersville would have looked entirely different than a 9-3 score had Tannersville fielded four (4) bunts that went as hits, also had they played errorless ball.

I am quoting the manager of Tannersville as well as other sport fans. Under weather conditions and a 40 degree temperature decisions and ability cannot be judged.

On May 2, Letter to the Editor by Mr. Bruce Frantz, he mentioned large scores such as 18-3 in 1957 and Lake Harmony did not do it again in 1958.

Bruce could not have followed the scores too closely; on April 28 there was a 22 to 4; June 23, a 22 to 6; July 7 a 22 to 6; on July 14 a 22 to 3.

No, Lake Harmony did not compete in any of those games.

Who are the four (4) excellent pitchers of the Lake Harmony Club? One of the lowest clubs in standing made eight (8) hits in four (4) innings against one of the excellent pitchers. Lake Harmony was out in some of their games.

Reeders won the pennant in 1948, 49 and 50. They were lambasted; then Kunkletown got it; in 1952 Bushkill was on the carpet about the eligibility of Ray Steele; then Strouds in 1956, statements made "never should have been allowed in the P. M. L.; now Lake Harmony. Always the club on top.

In 1956 Mr. Clark wrote in paper "Off The Record" that the Strouds have no competition in P. M. L., must get games from other areas such as Scranton, etc., to the effect they are invincible. There was a rebuttal. Three managers openly in the paper disagreed, they could be beaten.

Strouds Open Blue Mountain Loop Chase Tomorrow

Locals At Bethlehem Cards; 2 Other Tilts Also Slated

STROUDS kick off their initial play in the Blue Mountain Baseball League tomorrow when the Frank Radler-managed nine takes on Bethlehem on the Cardinals diamond. Game time is 2 p.m.

Two other games are also slated in the BML inaugural as Martin's Creek visits Nazareth and Danielsville travels to Bath.

PM Returns To Action Tomorrow

IDEAL LAST week because of rain, the Pocono Mountain Baseball League returns to action tomorrow after a one-week layoff.

A full schedule of four games is on tap as the circuit begins its third week of official play. The card shows Anolomink at Saylorsburg, Reeders at Tannersville, Lake Harmony at Barrett, and West End at Kunkletown.

In openers two weeks ago Reeders and Lake Harmony came out on top in inaugural contests.

Louisville In 'Trouble'

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — American Assn. President Ed Doherty Friday called for a meeting in Chicago Sunday to discuss the fate of the financially embattled Louisville Colonels baseball team.

Doherty said representatives of all clubs in the triple-A league will attend.

Colonel General Manager Joe Burke said "the financial status of the Colonels will be the topic.

We will tell them our situation, how much money we have, what our prospects are. Then it will be up to them to decide what to do."

The baseball club has set $30,000 as the figure needed to finish the rest of the season. The total in hand Friday was $13,000.

Thomson Pro Victor

WENTWORTH, England (UPI) — Peter Thomson of Australia won a 90-hole professional golf tournament Friday, spread-eagling a field of 39 top golfers with a last round of 67.

Thomson, three-time winner of the British Open championship, had a total of 348 for five rounds.

Locke 3rd

South African Harold Henning, 23, had a final round of 69 for 351 and second place. South African Bobby Locke, reigning British Open champion was third with a 70 for 352.

Rulah To Start In Withers Mile

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Trainer Eugene Jacobs of Martin's Rulah informed Pimlico Friday the colt will start in the Withers Mile in New York on Monday and come to Baltimore the next day to await the Preakness next Saturday.

Martin's Rulah, owned by George Lewis, was fifth in the Kentucky Derby last Saturday.

That was proven before the end of 1956.

1958 is here now; I believe Lake Harmony can and will be defeated; not necessarily by a high rated team, also will have plenty of competition.

In the paper "Off The Record" May 2 Mr. Clark says mostly minor league players are on the roster of Lake Harmony. It would have been clearer to the public had you said many had signs of the approval of them.

In speaking of distance to Lehighton; do you know it is nearer and better roads for Saylorsburg, Anolomink, West End, Kunkletown to go there than the field at Albrightsville? Tannersville and Reeders has a few minute difference. Yes Barrett must drive probably 12 miles farther, but they have only one game to play at Lehighton.

A player can be under contract to play with two teams in different leagues as far as the P. M. L. is concerned providing there is no conflict with the two managers.

Last paragraph under "Off The Record" May 2, pertaining to the P. M. L. League Officials have a problem on their hands that must be treated fairly and logically.

As I have stated before, the league officials have no voice.

When have league officials operated the league?

Once and for all I hope everyone will understand we have no voice in its operation.

Despite the rains of the past week, the Strouds have been able to get in periodic workouts in order to sharpen their offense and defense for the 1958 BML campaign.

However, Manager Radler will have to go without three of his starters in tomorrow's opener. Outfielder Dave Nevil, and infielders Dick Gray and Paul (Doc) Lim, still playing college ball at Lehigh, Colgate and Ursinus respectively will be unable to perform for the Strouds until their college seasons are over.

Radler has four hurlers to throw at the Cardinals. Left-handers Larry Raph and Billy Metzgar, and righties Harold Jacobsen, Al Shoch and Radler all are available for mound duty.

Russ Staples will handle the pitching choice, while Danny Eppley, team captain, cavers at first base. The rest of the infield has Bill Frear at second, Ted Yuhas or Al McCormick, short, Gene Plaza, third. In the outfield Thomas Michaels, Charley Litts, Randy Morris are ready for action.

The other teams rosters:

Bethlehem Cardinals: Donald Krescher, Robert DeLazio, Kalman M. Lasko, David A. Crockett, James Hume, James Coyle, Martin DeLazio, Michael Hartzell, Larry Enstrom, Luther LaBar, Raymond Ackey, Edward Dreisbach, Jerry Berger, Jack Redding, Harold Ambrose, Earl W. Dreisbach.

Holy Family of Nazareth: Charles Lysham, Frank Nikles, Joseph Bolognia, Frank Jurasits, Andrew M. Donello, Stephen Hamm, Stephen Jaramachuk, John Keglovitz, William Wolf, Philip Ciarrocchi, Ronald Mengel, John Fiegler, Daniel P. Slutter, Arthur Stasiak, John Jurasits and Louis Skrapits.

Danielsville: Marvin Kester, Frank Rex, James Cesanek, Larry Silliman, Paul Koski, Vincent Dieter, Allen Bossard, Carl R. Bell, Darrell V. Beck, Allan Spadt, Robert Kurtz, Frank J. Grohotolsky, Harold Henry, Dick Nissen, John McKee, Edward Mikits and John Mishko.

Bath: Walter Struss, James Oplinger, Horatio Fatzinger, Newton Moyer, Harold Miller, Raymond Reimer, Gregory Yost, Ronald Rice, Richard Haney, Paul S. Henning, Robert Rogers, Joseph Steiner, James Ezio, Donald Santo, Philip Bollman, Richard Santo and Robert Bowen. Ignatius Tanzgos and Victor Vogel under 18 years of age.

Martins Creek: Richard Walk, Howard Gutshall, Richard Bentham, Victor Schmetzler, Charles Tarsi, Alfred DiFilim, George DeFillin, Eston W. Morgan, Gene Jani, David Lutz, Benito DiMancantonio, Donald B. Kreitz, Brad Kohler, Philip Tarsi, John Wornick, Quindi Pulgini and Olimpio Paichardi. Under 18 Gary Fahl, James Gano and Alexander Camiono.

That was proven before the end of 1956.

CEMETERY PLOTS
It's pleasant now, but only weeks ago it was very different. Everyone will require a Cemetery plot. Some prudently reserved a plot in advance. Others meet the situation when the weather is miserable. The right way is now to advertise. Let's all go in, inspect, land and investigate its advantages. Every plot under adequate endowed or easy installment terms. Booklet.

Bloodmobile Collects 55 Pints

RED CROSS Bloodmobile collected only 55 pints yesterday during its stop at the American Legion Post Home.

The visit, sponsored by the Legion, left the Bloodmobile 70 short of its monthly 125-pint goal for Monroe County.

In Charge

In charge of the May visit for the Legion were Al Trimmer and Robert Banks.

Mrs. Walter Dreher, spokesman for the mobile unit staff, said last night that 70 persons registered but five had to be deferred.

Service At Water Gap

THE WOMEN'S SOCIETY of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, Delaware Water Gap, will have a prominent part in the worship service on Mother's Day tomorrow.

Special tribute will be paid to the mother with the youngest child attending church, also the mother attending with the largest family, and to the oldest mother present.

Mrs. Jerryd Fritz will be the guest soloist. It is expected that a large number of members and friends will attend the service which begins at 11:30 a. m.

Mother's Day Sermon Planned

"TWO DIFFERENT Mothers, Two Different Sons" will be the subject of the sermon Sunday morning by Rev. Luther Markin, minister of the Presbyterian Church of the Mountain, Delaware Water Gap.

The Senior and Junior choirs will sing.

a holy, Christ-like man he is.

It is the custom during audiences to read off a list of those who are attending. As the list is read, the Pope speaks in the language of each group.

He spoke first in Italian, then in French, English, Spanish and Dutch.

"It seems to surprise people to learn that he is not a small man. Perhaps it's because of his humility and the way in which he stands, because the Pope is actually six feet tall. He has large hands and long fingers. He is a gentle man who still has about him a great feeling of strength and forcefulness.

There were a good many dignitaries—counts, ambassadors and the like—inside the basilica during the audience. He greeted each of these personally after the formal reading of the list of groups.

"But as he moved along, greeting each one of them, he would reach between them, through the line and talk with the people gathered behind them."

Out of the audience, Father Esseff carried away a clear impression of a man who is dedicated, in love and sacrifice, to all men.

The Popes have been called "prisoners" by writers and theologians of the past. And the young American priest began to see that, in a very real sense, this was true.

Here is a man, he thought, who is the servant of the servants of God, who really lives the meaning of his title.

"He is a slave to mankind out of immense love for God," Father Esseff says now.

(Next—Ruins and Rediscovery)

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is one in a series of articles on a recent trip to Europe by Rev. John A. Esseff and Rev. Robert Galligan, local Roman Catholic priests.

By Leonard Randolph

NORTH American College in Rome is directly responsible for distribution of tickets needed by Americans for an audience with Pope Plus XII.

Last year the College, directed by Bishop O'Connor, arranged for 120,000 audiences. Most of those were for groups of Americans, not individuals. The groups range in number from a dozen to several thousand. College staff members work full time in arranging audiences.

It was through the College that Rev. John Esseff and Rev. Robert Galligan were given their permission for a Papal audience. The date was Wednesday, April 9. The two priests got to St. Peter's Cathedral early enough to see the Vatican Museum, the Sistine Chapel and the thousands of art treasures stored there.

That morning Father Esseff offered Mass on the tomb of Pope Innocent XI who was beatified—a step toward elevation to sanctity by the Church—this year. The body of Innocent is contained in a glass-enclosed tomb.

After celebrating Mass, Father Esseff had an opportunity to study the thousands of Pilgrims who were also waiting for the audience. There were about 4,000 German Pilgrims there. Father Esseff's journal entry for the day said:

"While I was offering Mass a large group of Germans came in. They struck me as being very devout and humble people. There were lots of young men. But in the very center of the group there was an old man who hobbed along with the aid of a cane."

"As they sang, he moved slowly along with them, joining in the wonderful hymns they sang. He doesn't know what he did for an American priest that day."

The basilica of St. Peter's is one of the great architectural triumphs of the ages. The largest in Christendom it can accommodate 100,000 people. It took nearly 150 years to build. At the top of its four huge supporting pillars there are mosaics of the four Evangelists.

Just as the airplane has succeeded in dwarfing our concepts of global space, the four pillars destroy Man's normal ideas of height and dimension.
